Events - Activity type

Drapetsona, Greece

From Monday 11th March 2019 to Friday 15th March, 2019

- Monday 11th March 2019
Day 1: Arrivals
- Tuesday 12th March 2019
Day 2: -Workshop: Practicing pedagogical activities to prevent ESL: 5 protection factors for authentic self-esteem and preventing ESL: security, identity, belonging, purpose and competence.
Roundtable discussions: Dialogue with parents. Training to differentiate between teacher role and parent role.
- Wednesday 13th March 2019
Day 3: Teachers support Pupils making a research at the Museum of Ancient Corinth was built in 1932 to house the numerous objects brought to light by the archaeological excavations. Pupils will visit Nauplius, a seaport town in the Peloponnese in Greece. The town was the capital of the First Hellenic Republic and of the Kingdom of Greece and Palamidi which is a fortress to the east of the Acronauplia. Thus, outdoor activities will make pupils aware of history and geography involving arts and new technologies. These kinds of outdoor activities will motivate our pupils to come to school, to take part in extracurricular activities.

- Thursday 14th March 2019

Day 4: There will be held lessons as afterschool programs : traditional dance lessons in school's hall (cooperation with neighboring schools) and history lesson in Museum of Acropolis in order to develop pupils 'skills , observation skills to make them responsible European citizens.

Feedback, evaluation of the outputs and outcomes of the meeting.

- Friday 15th March 2019

Day 5: Departures

We look forward to welcoming you to our school.

Yours sincerely ,
